Archery-Cycling Family Fun Day 2009

Dear Parents,

Swag is planning a Archery / Cycling Family Fun Day at Sydney Olympic Park, Homebush Bay on Saturday 27th June, 2009. In preparation the Manchester Olympics we will be having a family fun day trying our hand at archery. This is open to any member of your family over the age of 10 (due to physical strength required to operate the bow). Spaces are limited and as they don't do group bookings on the weekend you will need to organise your own individual booking by phoning them on 9748 7313 and asking for a place in their 2.00 pm lesson. For those who have not yet reached the ripe old age of 10 yet we will be organising other activities around the surrounding playground areas whilst the archery lesson is being held.

We will be meeting at Newington Armory Wharf (at the back of Silverwater Jail) for a BBQ lunch at around 12.00 pm. After lunch we will ride or drive depending on your mode of transport to the Archery Centre (Bennelong road) for our 2.00 pm lesson. Those that are not doing archery will continue to explore the park on bicycles around the 15kms of tracks that surround the area. We will finish approximately 4.00 pm. Go to www.sydneyolympicpark.com.au for visitor information.

Cost $20.00 per person for 1.5 hr archery lesson (must be at least 10 years old)
$3.00 per person for sausage sandwich (with onions & colesaw) and a can of drink

What to bring Bicycle and helmet (bikes and helmets are available for hire from certain locations in park)
A water bottle and something to snack on - whilst you ride

Please complete the permission slip and bring it to Swag by Tuesday 23rd June, 2009 or email (swag.org.au) or call (Ph: 9773 1380) by Thursday the 25th to let us know you are coming so we can cater for you. Bring your money with you on the day. Look forward to a great day of olympic fever with all of your family.
