Swag Camp - Bundanoon 2011

Dear Parents,

On Saturday and Sunday the 28th & 29th May 2011, Swag will be holding a standing camp for all the boys and their dads.

The location of this event will be at Gambles Rest in the Morton National Park, Bundanoon located in the Southern Highlands about 130 km south of Sydney. The camp will be a great time for the boys and dads to spend some quality time together enjoying God's creation. Don't think you can't come if your dad can't make it as there will be plenty of other dad's that can adopt you for the weekend. The weekend will involve some bush walking (to an old coal mine or waterfall), cycling to many of the lookouts within the park, seeing Glow Worm Glen on Saturday night, eating plenty of good food and fellowshiping together. We have booked 8 of the 10 campsites there. It has a shelter shed with kitchen facilities and there is a hot shower in the toilet block, so there is no excuse not to come. The plan is to meet at 8.30 am on Saturday at McDonalds (Sutton Forest) on the Hume Highway at Sally's Corner about 1 hr 15 minutes from Hurstville. After breakfast we will then travel in convoy to Bundanoon. We plan to return home by 4.00 pm Sunday.

Cost $30 per person (includes camping fees and all food)
$7 per car (day use fee) if you don't have a National Park (N.P.) sticker on your car
