Welcome to SWAG for 2006. Again we are looking forward to a great year. We are having a family camp again this year so we hope any of you will be able to spare that weekend as it will be a great opportunity to get to know you a little better. Andrew Greatbatch is taking a sabbatical this year so we thank him for his dedication and wish him all the best in 2006.

- You will receive the enrolment and medical forms this week. Please fill them out and return them as soon as you can. Particularly we are concerned about contact details for when we are away and medical information so we can be sure to keep the boys safe. Food allergies are especially a concern these days so please ensure we know of anything we should be avoiding.
- Fees. This year the fees will be $65, if you have more than one son attending it will be $55 each.
- Overnight camp fees this year will be $35. This will cover food gear and transport.

If you haven't already had a look at the calendar for this year please take the time to visit the website or get a printed copy from one of the leaders.

A reminder of an important legal note:

A lot of our information exchange occurs via the swag website. Photos are posted and names are also used. NSW privacy legislation requires us to have your permission. Of course we are sensible about what is presented and no full names or personal information is ever given out. If you are new to SWAG or have any concerns about such matters please talk with us so that we do not overstep any personal boundaries.

Thanks for entrusting your sons into our care. We are aware of the opportunity it is to help them as they grow and enjoy being a part of their lives. It will be good to catch up with those of you we haven't seen since last year. Don't forget to tell your friends and bring their children along too, but please remember that the boys need to be 8 years old. (we find we are not able to properly cater for children younger than this).
