

Welcome to SWAG for 2007. Again we are looking forward to a great year.

A few of our leaders are off globe-trotting this year so we have some fresh faces on the leadership team. Please take the time to introduce yourself to our new leaders: Andrew Bovis, Fred Dib, Jonathan Lee and Stephen Irvine.

Some of the events planned for this term include:

- Bike-a-thon @ Oatley bike track - 6th March
- Family beach @ Wottamolla beach - 10th March
- Fishing day - 24th March

As you can see, March is a busy month. More details on all these events are coming soon.

Membership and fees:

- You will receive an enrolment and medical forms in the next few weeks. Please fill them out and return them as soon as you can. Food allergies are especially a concern these days so please ensure we know of anything we should be avoiding.
- Fees. This year the fees will be $65, if you have more than one son attending it will be $55 each.
- Overnight camp fees this year will be approximately $35. This will cover food gear and transport.

A reminder of an important legal note:

A lot of our information exchange occurs via the swag website. Photos are posted and names are also used. NSW privacy legislation requires us to have your permission. Of course we are sensible about what is presented and no full names or personal information is ever given out. If you are new to SWAG or have any concerns about such matters please talk with us so that we do not overstep any personal boundaries.

Thanks for entrusting your sons into our care. We are aware of the great privilege that it is to be a part of the outworking of God's plan for their lives. Please join us this year in prayer for this ministry - that God would be glorified in all that SWAG does, and that many young lives would come to know God and their place in his world better.

From the SWAG leadership
your servants in Christ